

Womens Timber Corps

1942 – 1946

This statue is dedicated to the members of the Womens Timber Corps or "LUMBERJILLS" as they were affectionately known, who worked in woodlands throughout the country during World War II. It recognises their dedication, hard work and effort which was immeasurable.

"THANK YOU"